Be a hero to your association client.

Save the day with a non-dues revenue stream.

Brokers have the opportunity to offer association clients a non-dues revenue stream by enhancing their sponsored insurance program.

Associations and brokers can partner to bring stability to their sponsored insurance programs by forming a "captive" insurance company.

ASAE Insurance Company provides an established process to streamline start-up requirements.

The captive insurance model is a proven concept utilized by the American Society of Association Executives for its own programs.

Are you suffering from the headaches of licensing?

Supportive Insurance Services works with agents, agencies, adjusters, surplus lines brokers and insurance companies to obtain and maintain licenses.

Due to ever changing state and federal regulations, licensing can be a very tedious and time consuming task. Staying abreast of these changes and ensuring compliance with each state's requirements can be a real headache.

We can take this time-consuming, resource-eating job off your hands...and we can do it less expensively than you may think.

Contact Supportive Insurance Services for the relief you need!

Gallagher Bassett has been providing exceptional risk management services for 50 years. That makes our reputation for delivering an innovative and high-quality, cost-effective claims management service unparalleled in the industry. In fact, innovation is in our DNA. It sets the groundwork for our ability to create tailored, quality risk management programs through our four core businesses:

- Aggressive Claims Management
- Dynamic Information Management Solutions
- Successful Risk Management Programs
- Multiple Cost-Containment Solutions

Where there's opportunity, you'll find Gallagher Bassett. This company thinks big...and we're just getting started.

WE TAKE CARE OF THE LITTLE THINGS AND THE THINGS THINGS

You need a claims management partner who understands the importance of managing the big picture and the small details. At North American Risk Services we do just that. We manage every phase of claims management making sure we achieve the best result possible while taking care of every small detail and keeping you informed in the process.

NARS combines the expertise, technology and customer service like no other. We provide comprehensive claims management services for insurers, brokerages, managing general agencies, reinsurers, liquidation bureaus and self-insured funds.

Regardless of the type of loss, our professionals manage your claims with quality you can trust. Our staff members specialize in specific industries. They don't dabble from specialty to specialty, so you can be confident they understand your claims and will manage them to the best outcome possible.

Our Internet-based claims management system will keep you apprised of the progress of each and every claim. But we're much more than some software and a computer screen. We believe in old-fashion customer service — the kind where you get to know your business partner and where you can build rapport and trust.

Let us throw you a line.

While 95% of workers' comp executives believe medical costs to be the industry's most critical issue, less than 10% believe anything meaningful can be done about it.¹

Fortunately there's Paradigm.
Our catastrophic case management delivers:

- 5x better outcomes²
- 36% lower costs²
- 75% lower attorney involvement
- Guaranteed outcomes

Results that keep you floating.

2012 TMPAA Mid Year Attendees:

As we begin our second decade as the country's leading association for program administrators, we would like to acknowledge the TMPAA Vendor Members who play critical roles in so many areas of support and service to our total membership.

To each member in this 2012 Mid Year Meeting Vendor Book, we reach out to extend our sincere appreciation for your ongoing support of the association, and provide a special thanks for companies that have also sponsored part of this event. Our Vendors play a critical role in allowing us to put on our business-driven meeting over three days.

On behalf of the TMPAA Board and Staff, I hope every attendee has a profitable meeting and benefits from the investment you have made in the TMPAA.

Thank you,

Ray Scotto
